

Regional Giving Program

Giving Guidelines

Thank you for your interest in the Ross Stores Regional Giving Program. Ross invests in a small number of direct grants to federal tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organizations, schools, and government programs that serve a community where we have a large presence and many Associates, as described below. We consider funding organizations that are strongly aligned with our philanthropic mission. Organizations must meet the specific guidelines outlined below. Ross will welcome proposals for one-year grants of $10,000, $20,000, or $30,000 and will consider funding both general operations/overhead and specific programs.

Our Philanthropic Mission Statement

At Ross Stores, we invest in brighter futures by supporting programs that unlock the full potential of the next generation. With a goal of building competence, confidence, and character in the young people who need us most, Ross partners with organizations that work in our communities to build academic achievement and life skills.

Grant Cycles

In 2022, we will have three grant cycles.

All eligible and interested organizations must register and submit a Letter of Inquiry through our online portal by the deadline for the submission period. After review, only a select number of organizations that strongly align with Ross' mission will be asked to submit a full proposal. We do not accept Letters of Inquiry via mail, email, or fax.

Letter of Inquiry Submission Periods:

- Cycle 1: February 23 – March 16, 2022
- Cycle 2: June 16 – July 7, 2022
- Cycle 3: October 3 – October 24, 2022

We expect to award approximately 20-30 grants total during these three grant cycles.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for a donation, your organization must:

1. Be a federal tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization, school, or government program.
2. Serve a community where Ross has a large presence and many Associates, which are the following areas:
 - California: San Francisco Bay Area, Los Angeles Area,* Moreno Valley, Perris, Shafter
 - Pennsylvania: Carlisle
 - South Carolina: Rock Hill, Fort Mill
 - Texas: Sealy, Brookshire, Greater Katy Area, West Houston

 Eligible programs in the Los Angeles Area will serve the communities north of Long Beach, south of Burbank and Pasadena, and west of I-605.*

While Ross has a large presence in other areas, such as New York City, the Regional Giving Program only serves those areas listed above. Organizations that do not meet the geographic criteria may be referred to our Store-Based Giving Program.

3. Have not received a donation from Ross within the past 12 months.

- Ross will only make one donation per year to each organization.
 - One exception to this requirement is that organizations that have received gift cards or a small Store-Based Giving grant within the past 12 months may apply for a Regional Giving grant.
 - Organizations that have received a grant three (3) years in a row must wait out one (1) full grant-cycle year before applying for additional support. For example, if an organization was awarded a grant each year from 2020-2022, they cannot reapply again until the equivalent grant cycle in 2024.
- 4. Not discriminate against any category protected by Federal, state, or local laws in who they serve and also in who they hire. Ross is committed to equal employment opportunities (EEO) regarding the hiring, acceptance, and appreciation of every individual. See Ross' EEO statement here. Applicants will be asked to affirm that they do not discriminate in their programs or in their hiring practices.
- 5. Align with our philanthropic mission to create brighter futures by building academic achievement and life skills in economically disadvantaged youth, ages 3-24.
- Please review the list of eligible and ineligible populations and programs.

Eligible Programs

Academic Achievement: Programs that build a foundation of academic competence that will help young people succeed in a competitive workforce. These include:

- Literacy
- STEM/STEAM
- Tutoring
- School clothes/supplies/technology for learning*
- GED programs
- Stay-in-school efforts
 - Anti-truancy
 - Attendance support
 - Drop-out/re-entry
- College readiness
 - SAT/ACT preparation
 - Counseling for financial aid, grant applications, and loans
 - Scholarship programs

Life Skills: Programs that build confidence and character in young people. These include:

- Mentoring
- Financial literacy
- After-school programs that include academics or life skills listed here
- Leadership skills
- Career readiness/job skills
 - Mock interviews
 - Professional dress
 - Resume writing
 - Retail- or fashion-specific career programs, excluding fashion shows

*We recommend that organizations requesting technology for academics first explore all other cost-effective means, such as in-kind donations, before applying for a grant from Ross.

Ineligible Programs

While we understand that there is a great need across our communities, in order to deliver the greatest impact on our philanthropic mission, Ross will not support programs outside of our focus areas. Ineligible programs include:

- Medical and health programs
- Youth sports, sports teams or clubs, and recreation activities
- Programs for babies or youth under 3
- Fine arts and art museums
- Religious-focused programs*
- Cash reserves or endowments
- Political or advocacy support
- Direct support for individuals
 - Individual scholarships or tuition
- Research
- Event sponsorship
 - Sober graduation parties
 - Prom, homecoming, or other school dances
 - Galas
 - Walk-a-thons
 - Golf outings
 - Benefits
 - Conferences or seminars
- Animal welfare

- Research or travel grants
- Stipends or fellowships
- Personal assistance
- Conferences
- Training or learning programs
- Travel for any event
- Mission trips
- Capital campaigns or building upgrades
- Publications
- School field trips

* Ross will not support organizations or programs that spread political or religious beliefs. Ross will also not support any program which requires exposure, adherence to, or conversion to any religious doctrine to be a beneficiary of the program. A direct service program run by a faith-based organization may be eligible if the program's beneficiaries are not encouraged or required to learn about, adhere to, or convert to that organization's religious doctrine as a condition of receiving services from or attending the program.

How to Apply

Step 1: Review Giving Guidelines and Eligibility Requirements

Review the guidelines and requirements listed above.

Step 2: Eligibility Quiz

The eligibility quiz will help determine whether organizations and programs are aligned with our mission and comply with our guidelines. Take the eligibility quiz.

Step 3. Letter of Inquiry

Upon completion of the eligibility quiz, eligible organizations will be prompted to register and complete an online Letter of Inquiry, which is a series of questions about the grant proposal. Submission of the Letter or Inquiry does not constitute a grant application. Information requested about the organization and planned use of the funds will help us determine whether there is alignment with Ross' mission and objectives. We ask that organizations limit their submission to one Letter of Inquiry. We do not accept submissions via mail, email, or fax. Due to the high volume of submissions, we are unable to provide feedback on Letters of Inquiry that are not accepted.

Step 4. Full Proposal by Invitation Only

Following our review of the Letters of Inquiry, Ross will contact organizations that are most aligned with our mission approximately three weeks following the Letter of Inquiry deadline and invite them to submit a full grant proposal online. If further information is needed about the grant proposal, a Ross representative will contact the organization. We will announce a decision on awards within three months of the grant proposal deadline.

Requirements of Grantees

Written Grant Agreement

Grant recipients will be required to sign a grant agreement before the donation is delivered.

Reporting

All grant recipients are required to submit an impact report between 12-15 months after receiving the grant detailing how the grant was used and what outcomes were achieved. When possible, the organization should develop specific metrics of success and be able to measure their performance against those metrics. Grantees are not eligible to receive a repeat Regional Giving Program grant until the impact report has been received.

Other Information

Ross is not responsible for any proposal related expenses incurred by organizations at any step in the grant application process. Grant policies and requirements are subject to change without notice, and become effective immediately upon posting to this website. The interpretation of these policies is wholly within the discretion of Ross Stores, Inc. or the Ross Stores Foundation. All grants are made at the discretion of Ross Stores, Inc. or the Ross Stores Foundation. Qualification under the policies listed on this website does not entitle an organization to receive a grant. We reserve the right to decline to make any grant requested.